REPLACEMENT CERTIFICATES

Normal procedures

Examination Certificates are issued to the school or college where the examinations were sat, not directly to candidates. Even private candidates' certificates are now sent to the examination centre, rather than to the candidates' home addresses.

Certificates are normally sent out to examination centres following the examinations and distributed to individual candidates soon afterwards. Each centre will determine the most appropriate method of distributing the certificates. Some may require candidates to call at the centre in person, for example at a prize giving evening; others may forward them in the post.

Lost or uncollected certificates

If you have not received your examination certificate, contact the centre where you sat the examination in the first instance. But please note that centres are only obliged to retain unclaimed certificates for one year from the date of issue.

If you have attempted to collect the certificate from the centre more than one year after its issue and the centre no longer has it, or if you collected it, but it has since been lost or destroyed, then you may apply for a Certifying Statement of Results. WJEC cannot reproduce an original certificate.

Applicants can apply for:

Either

Certifying Statement of Results - This is an official WJEC statement of the final examination results achieved by a candidate for each session.

WJEC certificate stationery is used which has an official WJEC hologram proving its authenticity. The title at the top of the statement states 'Certifying Statement of Results'. Details of the fees for this service are on the application form.

Or

Letter of Confirmation - WJEC will provide written confirmation of a candidate's results direct to any employer, Educational Institution or Professional Body. Please note that Letters of Confirmation cannot be sent to candidates, nor can they be addressed "to whom it may concern". A specific individual/department within a specific organisation must be specified. Details of the fees for this service are on the application form.

NB: Please check with the organisation requesting confirmation of qualifications that the 'Letter of Confirmation' will be accepted by them, before you apply.
