

By
Edward Enebeli
Leigh Aspire Programme Manager

Shaping Lives, Transforming Communities

Degree Apprenticeships Overview

“Degree Apprenticeships will give people a great head start, combining a full degree with the real life practical skills gained in work and the financial security of a regular pay packet.” David Cameron, 2015

Degree Apprenticeships are:

- A government backed initiative to reduce skills gap;
- Degrees are designed by industry employers in partnership with colleges and universities;
- Great way to get on the career ladder

What Is A Degree Apprenticeship?

- An opportunity to gain a full bachelor's degree (Level 6) or master's degree (Level 7)
- Can take between three to six years to complete, depending on the course level.
- Designed in partnership with employers, part-time study takes place at a university or college, with the rest of your time being with your employer
- Only available in England and Wales, applications may be made from all parts of the UK
- Aimed at 18 to 19-year-old school leavers & existing employees
- Click on this link to view the video: What is a degree apprenticeship?

Why should I do a degree apprenticeship?

- The average student “leaves university with £44k of debt, and no guarantee of a job.”
Institute of Fiscal Studies
- Reasons to do a degree apprenticeship are:

1. EARN WHILE YOU LEARN	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Get paid work from day one• Apprentices can expect to earn over £35,000 per year on completion of their degree!
2. EMPLOYABILITY	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Degree apprenticeships do not guarantee a permanent job, but apprentices are highly employable graduates.• Building a relationship with an employer over an apprenticeship scheme will open doors into an industry.
3. RELEVANT SKILLS	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Employers and professional bodies design the apprenticeship programme....• So apprentices obtain the specific practical skills which are necessary for a job.• Apprentices can move seamlessly from their degree apprenticeship into a skilled profession.

What degree apprenticeships are available?

There are currently 24 degree apprenticeships in different industries on offer. These programmes are listed below:

- | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Aerospace Engineering• Aerospace Software Development• Automotive Engineering• Banking Relationship Manager• Bespoke Tailoring• Chartered Legal Executive• Chartered Manager• Chartered Surveying• Construction• Defence Systems Engineering• Dental Technician• Digital and Technology Solutions | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Electronic Systems Engineering• Healthcare Assistant Practitioner• Laboratory Science• Licensed Conveyancer• Nuclear Science• Operations Manager• Outside Broadcasting Engineering• Power Systems• Product Design and Development• Solicitor• Technical Support Engineering |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

How are degree apprenticeships paid for?

Cost:- £9, 000 per year

The funding for degree apprenticeships is divided between the government and your employer.

The government pays two-thirds of your costs and fees, capped at £18,000, while your employer pays the rest.

Apprentices will work for a minimum of 30 hours a week for 30 weeks a year.

Entry Requirements

- The entry requirements for each degree apprenticeship varies for each programme.
- Not all employers are requiring candidates to have A Levels to qualify for applications.
- For example, some employers request candidates have the equivalent of 280 UCAS points.
- Relevant work experience is also considered by employers if other criteria are not met.
- For full entry requirements, it's best to look at university websites and employer's recruitment materials.
- You may be surprised about which degree apprenticeships you are eligible for!

Watch 'A Week in the Life of Siobhan Holden', a degree apprentice at Barclays.

A Week in the Life of Siobhan Holden
- a degree apprentice at Barclays

Key Things To Investigate

- What is the apprenticeship and job role – does it fit what you're looking for?
- Find out about the employer – is it the type of company you want to work for?
- Find out about the training provider, college, or university where you could be studying.
- What qualifications, subjects, and grades are they looking for?
- What essential/desirable skills and experience do they ask for, and what qualities are they are looking for in applicants?
- Does the job require you to work in different locations?
- Would you need to move away from home for work?
- What is the salary, and do they offer any other benefits or facilities you can use?
- What are your three most and least positive aspects of this apprenticeship or job opportunity?

Where do I find a degree apprenticeship?

You can find degree apprenticeship schemes here:

- View degree apprenticeship vacancies
- <https://careerfinder.ucas.com/jobs/apprenticeship/>
- Visit the government website for apprenticeships
- Discover full list of apprenticeships in England
- Alternatively, you can apply through the Tech Partnership

Or, you can go directly to the sites of employers and their university partners.

Degree Apprenticeships In London

- BPP Business School are providing two programmes, a BBA (Hons) Chartered Management and BSc (Hons) Design and Technology Solutions.
- The University of Roehampton offer a BSc (Hons) Digital and Technology Solutions, specialising in network engineering, software engineering and data analysis.
- Queen Mary University of London are in partnership with Goldman Sachs, GSK, IBM, and have designed an IT Degree Apprenticeship with John Lewis.
- The University of West London have introduced three new programmes; a Chartered Manager Degree Apprenticeship, a Digital and Technology Solutions Manager Degree Apprenticeship, and Healthcare Assistant (Practitioner) Higher Degree Apprenticeship.
- The University of Greenwich and Ravensborne College have yet to declare which courses they are launching next year.
- Pearson College London provide three degree apprenticeship programmes: a Business Management degree in partnership with the BBC, a Chartered Manager Degree Apprenticeship, and a Rotational Degree Apprenticeship, which includes professional work experience with three industry leading companies.
- Birkbeck, University of London offer two schemes, a Digital and Technology Solutions Degree Apprenticeship and a Chartered Management Degree Apprenticeship

Software Engineering degree apprenticeship with Custodian Solutions and the University of Exeter - Example

- Tom is working for Custodian Solutions, with structured intervals to attend lectures and complete online classes, in order to gain a BSc Digital and Technology Solutions from the University of Exeter.
- Tom is developing a technical and professional expertise in IT in a real-life working environment.
- His degree is tailored to the specific and relevant skills he needs for a career in software engineering.
- He earns a salary of £20,000 and is debt free as his employer is paying for his degree from a Russell Group university.

More Useful Videos

To view the videos, click on any of the links below:

- WATCH! Degree Apprenticeship in Digital & technology Solutions at MMU
- WATCH! BBC group case study
- WATCH! Megan at Shop Direct
- WATCH! Ryan at AstraZeneca
- WATCH! Adam at Solutions PT

Next Steps

For more information on degree apprenticeships, see Lynn Bayliss in H Block

Shaping Lives, Transforming Communities

